2D Space Planning

Planning & preparation

Using our space planning software, and years of experience, we offer FREE step by step planning advice to help customers make the most of their available space, budget, and choose the right products for the right application.

Whether it be a small single person office, or a full company refurbishment, our highly experienced planners are able to work hand in hand with all personnel involved to ensure we make the best use of the available space. From an initial planning meeting to final design approval we will be on hand to assist.

For a no obligation consultation, call us now on 0845 644 8707

3D Space Planning

Design excellence

We are also able to offer a 3D animated design service.

Allowing customers a unique walk through view of what their offices will look like before a final decision has been made. We can even allow for the smallest of details, from the colour of seating fabrics to the position of the office Photocopier. A unique tool that has hugely benefitted our customers when making key decisions during what can be a very stressful process.
